Additional Advantages of a Corporation Having a Corporate Membership:

- Memberships are transferable within the Corporation.
- Membership runs from January 1st to December 31st to allow for preparation for the annual ACCES Conference
 - Guaranteed conference booth space (one booth only) if registering at least three months prior to Conference start date. Additional booths can be purchased if available at the time requested.
 - Booth discount of 10% for first booth. Additional booths, if requested, will be charged at regular rates. (Note: discount only applies to the conference taking place in the same year as the active corporate membership. Corporate memberships are valid from January 1st to December 31st in a given year, but can be renewed or purchased up to three months prior to the end of the previous year).
 - Advance notice of conference dates.
 - Acknowledgement of Corporate Members at the conference, regardless of attendance.
- One free corporate job posting for two weeks on the ACCES website per membership year (January to December). Additional job postings would require extra charges to Corporation of $200.00 per posting.
