

Presented by □ Laurel Taylor, Canadian Patient Safety Institute

2011-01-26

Through the use of case studies, individual and system level contributors to patient safety incidents will be described. Participants will review several examples relevant to their context with a focus on understanding and applying the six domains included in The Safety Competencies Framework can improve patient safety within their organizations.